Please indicate your impressions of the items listed below. On the second page there are open ended questions ... We wouldn't be psychiatrists if we didn't ask them! Frankly, there's nothing we hate more than filling out essay questions. So don't think of these as essay questions, think of this as a Rorschach test about the workshop! We want to know your gut reaction to the whole experience. You don't need to answer every question, just answer the ones that you can answer quickly.
